Message from the CEO

"We at Unique Overseas Consultant are ever committed to deliver the highest levels of skilled and qualified personnel through an approach of customer dedication, focus on innovation and uncompromising business ethics.

We aim to be the preferred Global Manpower and Placement Consultant, by achieving international standards in operations that meet the expectations of our business partners. Integrating high quality and ethical approach, we have been able to create long-standing relationships and retain our business partners. We have evolved into a one stop destination consultant for our business partners to fulfil all their human resource requirements.

The key towards our success has been that we don't simply aim to fill the vacancy, we aspire to find the perfect match. Moreover we assume our responsibility doesn't end with the dispatch of the personnel, but expands to the role of ensuring they are efficient in their contribution and are fulfilling their assigned roles. Furthermore we are always receptive to all forms of feedback, and therefore have been an ever evolving consultant that doesn't shy away from change that leads us to the path of success."
